- (B) If the attorney for a party fails to appear at the scheduled time for the hearing and the party whom he/she represents is present, the hearing may proceed as scheduled.

DR 17. Financial Plan Analysis Computer Printout

In absence of expert testimony as to the accuracy of the financial projections, the use of a financial plan analysis computer program printout may be submitted only as part of the final argument on financial feasibility of support and not as evidence.

- (A) Any requests for a temporary order pursuant to Civil Rule 75(N) must be filed when the complaint, answer, or counterclaim is filed.
- (B) The party requesting a temporary order pursuant to Civil Rule 75(N) must file a Notice of Perfection of Service (Form DR 201) advising the Court that the other party has been served.

DR 20. Exclusive Occupancy

- (A) If a party has been absent from the marital residence for 30 days or more, the Court may, upon motion and affidavit, issue an ex parte order awarding the other party exclusive occupancy of the marital residence.

- (B) If both parties are residing in the marital residence, a motion for exclusive occupancy may be granted after a hearing if the party requesting exclusive occupancy establishes that the other party:
- (1) attempted to cause or recklessly caused bodily injury;
  - (2) placed the party requesting exclusive occupancy, by threat of force, in fear of imminent serious physical harm;
  - (3) committed any act with respect to a child that would result in the child being an abused child as defined in R.C. 2151.031; or
  - (4) engaged in conduct that creates an environment which causes or is likely to cause emotional and/or mental stress to the party requesting exclusive occupancy and/or to the minor child/ren of the parties.

DR 21. Temporary Restraining Orders

The Court will issue the Temporary Restraining Order set forth in Appendix C upon the filing of a Complaint for Divorce or Legal Separation unless a Separation Agreement is filed with the Complaint.

TITLE D: ALLOCATION OF PARENTAL RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

DR 22. Shared Parenting

If one party seeks shared parenting and the other party seeks to be sole residential parent and legal custodian, the party seeking shared parenting must file a motion for shared parenting and a proposed Shared Parenting Plan at least 30 days prior to the final hearing on allocation of parental rights and responsibilities.

DR 23. Parenting Time

The Court adopts the Clermont County Guideline Parenting Schedule set forth in Appendix D. This is a guideline only and is subject to deviation after consideration of the best interest factors set forth in R.C. 3109.051. Unless the parties specifically agree otherwise or the Court finds that the facts of a case warrant a modification, all parenting time orders must contain the following language:

RELOCATING THE CHILDREN: Neither parent/legal custodian may relocate the child/ren outside of a 75 mile radius of the residence address of the residential parent (sole custody) or the other residential parent (shared parenting) at the time of the last parenting time order without first obtaining a modified parenting time order. The parents may submit a motion and an agreed entry in compliance with DR 36, modifying parenting time, with a provision for allocation of transportation expenses, for adoption by the Court as an order. If the parents are unable to agree, the parent filing the Notice to Relocate must, prior to relocation, 1) file a motion asking the Court to modify the parenting time schedule, 2) set a hearing, and 3) obtain a modified parenting time order. The motion must include the new residence address unless not required under R.C. 3109.051(G)(2). Because relocating a child can be harmful to the parent/child relationship, the Court will not continue hearings to address a modification of the parenting schedule due to an imminent relocation except in extreme circumstances.

- (A) A party may bring a minor child to the courthouse if:
  - (1) the child is testifying in the case;
  - (2) the Court is conducting an in camera interview; or
  - (3) the child is interviewing with a Parenting Investigator.
- (B) All child/ren must be supervised at all times. The Court does not provide babysitting services.
- (C) The recording and transcript of an in camera interview is sealed.
- (D) If a child is testifying or the Court is conducting an in camera interview, the Court will not use physical restraint of the child in the court proceeding unless the following occurs.
  - (1) The Judge or Magistrate before whom the child is appearing makes a specific determination on the record that:
    - a. there is no less restrictive alternative to the use of physical restraint;
    - b. the physical restraint of the child is necessary because the child represents a current and significant threat to the safety of the child or other persons in the courtroom; and
    - c. there is a significant risk the child will flee the courtroom.

- (2) If the Court receives a written or verbal request to use a physical restraint on a child, the child, child's parents, custodian, guardian, guardian ad litem, the state, court security staff, detention personnel, probation officers, and any other person specifically designated by the Court will be heard on the issue of whether the use of physical restraint is necessary.
- (E) If the Judge or Magistrate determines that physical restraint is necessary, the restraint must be the least restrictive means necessary to meet the risk as determined by the Judge or Magistrate. The restraint should not unnecessarily restrict the movement of the child's hands. This rule does not prohibit the use of restraints during transportation to and from the Court or in the court buildings either before or after hearings.

DR 25. Parental Investigation by the Court

- (A) Parental Investigation. The Court may order an investigation of each party's character, family relations, and past conduct to assist the Court in allocating parental rights and responsibilities.
- (B) Parenting Questionnaire. Each party must return his/her completed parenting questionnaire to the Parenting Investigator as ordered. If a party fails to return the questionnaire or fails to cooperate in the investigation, he/she may be subject to a contempt action by the Court. The Parenting Investigator may prepare the report without the information of any party who fails to return the questionnaire, attend appointments, or return telephone calls.
- (C) Costs. The cost of the investigation, as set forth in Appendix B, will be allocated between the parties at the time the investigation is ordered, subject to reallocation at the final hearing.
- (D) Parental Investigation as Evidence. The Parenting Investigator's report is admitted as the Court's exhibit and may not be included in either party's exhibits. The report is direct evidence. The Parenting Investigator is subject to cross examination. If a party desires to cross examine the Parenting Investigator, it is that party's responsibility to issue a subpoena to the Parenting Investigator pursuant to Civil Rule 45. The subpoena should be issued as soon as possible, but it must be served no later than three weeks prior to the final hearing.

DR 26. Medical/Psychological/Psychiatric Evaluations

- (A) Evaluations. The Court may order a party, both parties, and/or the minor child/ren to submit to medical, psychological, and/or psychiatric examinations. The Court will send the Entry of Appointment to the physician or psychologist. It is a party's responsibility to contact the physician or psychologist.
- (B) Costs. The cost of the examination will be allocated between the parties at the time the examination is ordered, subject to reallocation at the final hearing.
- (C) Medical, Psychological or Psychiatric Evaluations as Evidence. A medical, psychological, or psychiatric evaluation may not be entered as direct evidence without testimony of the performing physician or psychologist or consent of the parties. It is a party's responsibility to issue a subpoena to the physician or psychologist pursuant to Civil Rule 45. The cost of the testimony of the physician or psychologist is subject to reallocation between the parties in the final hearing.

DR 27. Divorce Counseling

- (A) The Court requires each party to attend a parenting seminar when a Complaint for Divorce, Dissolution, or Legal Separation is filed and the parties have a child who is younger than 16 years old. This seminar is designed to educate each parent on ways to minimize the negative impact the divorce, dissolution, or separation may have on their child. Each party must register, pay, and attend the parenting seminar within 45 days after service of the order. Failure to attend may subject the party to a contempt action by the Court.
- (B) It is the attorney's responsibility to advise his/her client of the program and the requirements of this rule.

DR 28. Family Service Assessment by the Court

- (A) Family Service Assessment. When a Complaint for Divorce or Legal Separation is filed involving a minor child, the parties may be required to submit to a Family Service Assessment with the Court's Parenting Investigator. The assessment is conducted as a phone conference between the parties and the Parenting Investigator only.

(B) Procedure.

- (1) The Parenting Investigator notifies each party of the date and time of the phone conference through email or regular mail. The phone conference will last about 30 minutes.
- (2) Each party is allowed time to express his/her wishes and concerns, without interruption from the other party.
- (3) Within seven days of the phone conference, the Parenting Investigator will make a written recommendation as to which Court services might benefit the parties. The recommendation is emailed or mailed to both parties and his/her attorney of record. A copy is placed in the family file for the Judge or assigned magistrate to review at the first pre-trial.
- (4) The recommendations are informal and not binding.

- (C) Participation. The parties are required to participate. Failure to participate may subject the party to a contempt action by the Court and/or delay in entering the final divorce or legal separation decree.

DR 29. Appointment of Guardian Ad Litem (GAL)

- (A) The Court may appoint a guardian ad litem (“GAL”) to protect the best interest of the child/ren pursuant to Sup.R. 48.

(B) Scope.

- (1) The GAL must gather and assess all information necessary to allow the GAL to make an informed recommendation as to the best interest of the child/ren. Sup.R. 48 provides guidelines to the GAL.
- (2) Upon request the Court will provide the GAL with a copy of the Ohio Courts Network (OCN) report on each party.
- (3) The Court will notify the GAL of all hearings and proceedings. As provided in Sup.R. 48, the GAL must attend all hearings in the case that involve parenting issues and any in camera interviews. The attorneys/self-represented parties must serve the GAL with all pleadings, motions, notices, and other documents filed in the case related to parenting issues.

- (4) In representing the best interest of the child/ren and providing the Court with relevant information, the GAL may review all confidential records involving the child/ren by request, subpoena, and deposition, subpoena and examine independent witnesses, and cross examine all witnesses called by the parties to the case.
- (5) Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, at the conclusion of the parties' parenting evidence the GAL will testify on direct. The GAL will be subject to cross examination by both parties at the conclusion of the GAL's direct testimony.
- (6) The Court may appoint an attorney for the child/ren when there is a conflict between the GAL's recommendation and the child/ren's wishes.

(C) Procedure.

- (1) The Court will appoint the GAL from a roster of eligible candidates. The Court will conduct annual performance and compliance reviews of all GALs.
- (2) The Court will order the parties to pay the GAL's appropriate fees. The GAL's fees may exceed the deposit. All GAL fees, including fees paid through the deposit, are subject to reallocation between the parties in the final hearing.
- (3) The GAL will be paid $125 per hour for his/her billable time. Unless waived by both parties, the GAL must provide a monthly statement of the fees to date to the attorney/self-represented parties, so that all parties are aware of the amount of the bill. When requesting an order for payment of GAL services, the GAL must file a motion and an itemized statement of all services rendered and costs incurred.
- (4) The GAL must file a report with the Court as required under Sup.R.48.
- (5) The GAL's appointment is terminated automatically with the filing of the final decree or final entry.

- (D) Qualifications. In addition to the requirements set forth in Sup.R.48, the GAL must accept one pro bono assignment per year. Refusal of this assignment will result in removal from the list of eligible GALs.
- (E) Complaint Process. Any comments or complaints regarding a GAL's performance must be submitted in writing to the Court Administrator. The Court Administrator will forward any comments and complaints to the Judge for consideration and appropriate action. The Court Administrator will notify the person making the comment or complaint and the GAL of the disposition. A record of the complaint and disposition will be included in the GAL's file and annual Court performance review.

DR 30. Mediation of Parenting Responsibilities

- (A) When Ordered. The Court may order the parties to participate in mediation pursuant to Sup.R. 16.
- (B) Scope. The Court will not order mediation in any of the following situations:
  - (1) as an alternative to the prosecution or adjudication of domestic violence;
  - (2) in determining whether to grant, modify, or terminate a Domestic Violence Civil Protection Order;
  - (3) in determining the terms and conditions of a Domestic Violence Civil Protection Order; or
  - (4) in determining the penalty for violation of a Domestic Violence Civil Protection Order.
- (C) Procedure.
  - (1) Each party may have his/her attorney or another support person attend the mediation session. If a party is bringing an attorney or another support person, that party must notify the Mediator in advance, so that the Mediator can ensure adequate space for mediation. If a party fails to notify the Mediator in advance, it may be necessary to reschedule the mediation.

- (2) Any case referred for mediation is screened for domestic violence prior to beginning the mediation and throughout the mediation as necessary.
  - (3) When domestic violence or fear of domestic violence is alleged, suspected, or present, mediation will take place only under the following conditions:
    - a. the alleged victim is fully informed about the mediation process, his/her right to decline to participate in mediation, and his/ her right to have a support person present;
    - b. the Court and the Mediator determine that the parties have the capacity to mediate without fear of coercion or control; and
    - c. appropriate security measures are in place to provide for the safety of all parties involved in the mediation.
  - (4) The Mediator will terminate mediation if he/she believes there is a threat of domestic violence or coercion between the parties.
- (D) Qualifications. A mediator employed by the Court, or to whom the Court makes referrals for mediation, must have the following minimum qualifications:
- (1) A bachelor's degree, or equivalent education experience, satisfactory to the Court, and at least two years of professional experience with families. Professional experience with families includes mediation, casework, legal representation in family law matters, or such other equivalent experience that is satisfactory to the Court;
  - (2) Completion of at least 12 hours of basic mediation training or equivalent experience that is satisfactory to the Court, and at least 40 hours of specialized family or divorce mediation training conducted in a program approved by the Commission on Continuing Legal Education in accordance with the administrative guidelines established by the Committee on Dispute Resolution of the Ohio Supreme Court; and

- (3) When domestic violence or fear of domestic violence is alleged, suspected, or present, the Mediator must have completed at least 14 hours of specialized training in domestic abuse and mediation through a training program approved by the Ohio Supreme Court Advisory Committee on Dispute Resolution. If not, he/she must co-mediate with a mediator who has completed the specialized training.
- (E) Confidentiality. The statements made during the course of the mediation screening, mediation sessions, and the notes of either the Mediator or the individual conducting the screening are not discoverable or admissible as evidence. The foregoing confidentiality requirements do not exempt any person from the statutory duty to report the following:
- (1) child abuse pursuant to R.C. 2151.421;
  - (2) statements that a felony has been or is being committed;
  - (3) violent acts that occur during mediation; and
  - (4) threats of harm to other people.

DR 31. Early Neutral Evaluation

(A) Definitions.

- (1) Early Neutral Evaluation (“ENE”) is a court-ordered dispute resolution process in which evaluators provide an evaluation of the probable outcome of litigation. ENE is not mediation.
- (2) An Early Neutral Evaluator (“Evaluator”) conducts the ENE session. The Evaluator may not serve as a magistrate in the pending action. The Evaluator may not serve as a magistrate in a subsequent proceeding for a period of one year.
- (3) “ENE Communication” means a statement, whether verbal or written, that occurs during an ENE session or is made for purposes of considering, conducting, participating in, initiating, continuing, or reconvening an ENE session.

- (B) Case Selection and Referral. Both parties must be represented by an attorney. Either party may request ENE through a written or oral motion to the Court or the Court may order ENE by its own motion. Once ENE is ordered, the Court will assign two Evaluators and select a date, time, and location for the first ENE session. The Court may order the parties to pay an ENE fee.
- (C) Participation. ENE requires the participation of each party and his/her attorney. No other person is permitted to participate without the Court's approval.
- (D) Scheduling Procedure. Each ENE session is scheduled for three hours. If additional sessions are necessary, they will be scheduled after the first ENE session.
- (E) Pre-Session Procedure. Three weeks prior to the ENE session, each party must submit his/her Parenting Perspective Brief ("Brief") to the Court. The Brief may be submitted by ordinary mail, hand-delivery, facsimile, or email. Upon receipt of both Briefs, the Court will send a copy of each Brief to opposing counsel. The Evaluators will review the Briefs prior to the first ENE session. The Briefs will not be filed with the Clerk of Courts. If the Briefs are filed with the Clerk of Courts, the Court will order the Briefs removed and stricken from the record. All copies of the Briefs are shredded upon completion of the ENE process.
- (F) Session Procedure. At the ENE session, the Evaluators will oversee the discussion to allow each party and his/her attorney the opportunity to be heard in an atmosphere of cooperation and respect. The Evaluators may seek additional information from each party. Once the information is gathered, the Evaluators will caucus to discuss the strengths and weaknesses of each party's position and probable outcomes. The Evaluators will then present their feedback and the options to all parties. Each party will have an opportunity to consult privately with his/her attorney to review and discuss the Evaluators' feedback. The Evaluators, parties, and attorneys will reconvene and discuss results. If the parties come to a full or partial agreement, the parties will reduce the agreement to writing and submit it to the Judge or the assigned magistrate.

(G) Continuances. It is the Court's goal to determine matters in a timely manner. No case scheduled for ENE will be continued without the Court's authorization. A motion for a continuance must state the reason(s) for the request. A scheduled ENE session will be continued only for good cause shown and only after a new date has been determined.

(H) Confidentiality.

(1) An ENE Communication is not subject to discovery and is not admissible as evidence. An Evaluator may not be deposed or subpoenaed to testify about any ENE Communication unless an exception applies. Exceptions to privilege include the following:

- (a) The ENE Communication is otherwise discoverable;
- (b) The ENE Communication is an imminent threat or statement of a plan to inflict bodily injury or commit a crime of violence;
- (c) The ENE Communication is intentionally used to plan, to attempt to commit, or to commit a crime or to conceal an ongoing crime or ongoing criminal activity; or
- (d) The ENE Communication is required to be disclosed pursuant to R.C. 2921.22.

(2) The confidentiality requirements do not exempt any person from the statutory duty to report following:

- (b) statements that a felony has been or is being committed;
- (c) violent acts that occur during the ENE session; and

7. Voluntarily liquidating, cashing in, changing the beneficiary, terms, or conditions of any retirement or pension plan or program that provides any benefit to a spouse or the parties' minor child/ren; and
8. Voluntarily interrupting or terminating any utility service to the marital residence without prior written consent of the other spouse or the Court. This order, by itself, does not create an obligation for either spouse to pay the utility service.

Nothing in the above restraining orders precludes a spouse from using his/her property to pay necessary and reasonable attorney fees, litigation costs, and court costs in this action.

APPENDIX D - CLERMONT COUNTY GUIDELINE PARENTING SCHEDULE
CLERMONT COUNTY DOMESTIC RELATIONS COURT
GUIDELINE PARENTING SCHEDULE

This Guideline Parenting Schedule is effective April 30, 2019. This Schedule does not apply to any orders journalized prior to April 30, 2019.

This Guideline uses the singular term “child” for ease of reading but it includes all of the minor children of the marriage.

1. GENERAL PARENTING PRINCIPLES

During and after a divorce, there is often a crisis period (from several months to years) during which families are under great stress because of loss, conflict, and change. Most studies show, and psychologists uniformly agree, that the child who does best following a divorce is from a family that maintains a low level of conflict. The absence of conflict is more critical than the amount of time either parent spends with the child. Although parents may decide to terminate their marriage, parents should never terminate their relationship with their child.

Shared parenting is the preferred method of parenting a child following the termination of a marriage. Shared parenting does not necessarily mean that the child will spend equal time with each parent. Shared parenting means that both parents will continue to be legal custodians and residential parents of their child and will continue to make decisions for their child. Shared parenting requires both parents to respect and trust one another and to act in their child’s best interest. If there is evidence that the parents are unable or unwilling to operate under a Shared Parenting Plan, then shared parenting may not be in the child’s best interest.

If shared parenting is not in the child’s best interest, one parent will be designated the sole residential parent and legal custodian. The other parent has the right to see the child under the parenting schedule, but is not a legal custodian or residential parent.

No specific parenting schedule will satisfy the needs of a child and parents over the years. Critical to the success of any schedule is that each parent remains flexible, based upon the changing needs of the child, as the child grows older. This Guideline Parenting Schedule takes into account the changing developmental needs of a child. This Court recognizes that each situation is different and that each child is different. It is preferred that parents tailor the parenting schedule to meet the specific needs of their child. Consistency in the scheduled time is also helpful for both parents and for a child.

Parents are the best judge of what are their child’s needs. Although parents may consider a child’s wishes and concerns in determining parenting schedules, they are not the controlling factor. If a child indicates a strong opposition to being with the other parent, both parents are responsible for encouraging the child to have a positive relationship with both parents. Both parents must deal appropriately with the situation by calmly discussing with the child his/her reasons. The parents must work together to alleviate these misgivings without confrontation or argument. If they cannot resolve the problem, the parents should seek the assistance of a counselor or other professional. Either parent may file a motion requesting court ordered counseling. It is the absolute duty of each parent to foster an environment which avoids such problems and to make certain that the child has a healthy on-going relationship with both parents.

If parents are unable to agree on a parenting schedule, then this Court will decide what is best for their child. A court imposed parenting schedule is not a judgment by this Court that one parent is better than the other parent. A court imposed parenting schedule is based solely on what is best for the child in the current circumstances.

To maintain frequent contact with a child following a divorce, parents should strongly consider living in the same school district or within close proximity to one another. The farther the distance between the parents' homes, the more difficult it is for both parents to maintain their involvement with their child.

Parents should create a schedule that works best for their family. In creating a schedule, parents should consider all of the following:

- A. The developmental needs and age of their child;
- B. The activities in which their child are involved;
- C. Whether their child has any special needs;
- D. The preservation or development of a close relationship with each parent;
- E. Each child's temperament and ability to handle change; and
- F. The parents' career demands and work schedules

2. WEEKLY SCHEDULE

A. Birth to Sixteen Years

As a child matures, he/she will often have extracurricular and peer group activities. Both parents should continue to support their child in these activities to the same extent they would had if the marriage not been terminated. Each parent must put aside any animosity he/she feels toward the other parent when the parents are attending their child's activities to avoid embarrassing the child. Neither parent, however, may use his/her authority to schedule extracurricular activities in a manner that defeats or seriously infringes on the other parent's ability to spend time with the child.

Parent 1 will have parenting time alternating weekly as follows:

Week A: Wednesday at 8:00 a.m. until Monday at 8:00 a.m. If the child has school on Wednesday morning, then Parent 1 will pick up the child after school on Wednesday. If the child does not have school on Wednesday morning, then Parent 1 will pick up the child at 8:00 a.m. on Wednesday. Parent 1 must provide transportation from school on Wednesday, to and from school on Thursday and Friday, and to school on Monday morning. If the child does not have school on Monday morning, Parent 1 must return the child to Parent 2 or the child care provider by Monday at 8:00 a.m.

Week B: Wednesday at 8:00 a.m. until Friday at 8:00 a.m. If the child has school on Wednesday morning, then Parent 1 will pick up the child after school on Wednesday. If the child does not have school on Wednesday, then Parent 1 will pick up the child at 8:00 a.m. on Wednesday. Parent 1 must provide transportation from school on Wednesday, to and from school on Thursday, and to school on Friday. If the child does not have school on Friday, Parent 1 must return the child to Parent 2 or the child care provider by Friday at 8:00 a.m.

B. Age Sixteen Years and above

A child in this age group tends to view his/her peer group as more important than his/her family. This does not mean that parents are insignificant or have no role to play with a child of this age. Each parent must continue to support their child's relationship with both parents. Both parents should continue to support their child in his/her activities to the same extent as if they had not terminated their marriage. Each parent must put aside any animosity he/she feels toward the other parent when the parents are attending their child's activities, to avoid embarrassing the child.

An older child may be driving by age 16; he/she may be working part time jobs, and participating in extracurricular activities in addition to attending high school. Both parents have to be reasonable with their demands for their child to spend time with the parents, especially during weekends and summer holidays. Quality of time is more important than a rigid schedule. Flexibility in scheduling is necessary. When possible, the parents should consider the older child's wishes.

Parent 1 will have parenting time as follows:

Alternating weekends from Friday at 6 p.m. until Monday morning. If school is in session, Parent 1 is responsible for taking the child to school on Monday morning. If school is not in session, Parent 1 must return the child to Parent 2 by Monday at 10 a.m. Parents should respect an older child's need to spend time with peers and in organized activities, and less time with each parent.

C. Siblings in different age groups

If a family has a child in Brackets 2A and 2B above, then Parent 1 will have parenting time with the child according to each child's bracket.

Child's Birthday (no school)*	Parent 1	Parent 2	9:00a.m. to 9:00p.m.

*The year in which New Year's Day falls determines whether the holiday is in an even or odd-numbered year.

**If Beggar's Night occurs on different nights in each parent's neighborhood, then the child may participate in Beggar's Night in each parent's neighborhood.

***If Parent 1 and Parent 2 are the same sex, Parent 1 will have parenting time from 10:00a.m. to 9:00p.m. on Mother's Day in even years and Father's Day in odd years, and Parent 2 will have parenting time from 10:00a.m. to 9:00p.m. on Mother's Day in odd years and Father's Day in even years.

****The parenting time for birthdays will include all children of the marriage, not just the child celebrating his/her birthday.

Parents may celebrate additional days of special meaning in which the child should be permitted to participate. These days of special meaning include, but are not limited to, a parent's wedding, extended family members' birthday celebrations, anniversaries, religious holidays, and cultural holidays. Holidays of religious or cultural significance should be allocated between the parents in their parenting order.

B. Extended Time

Each parent is entitled to three weeks of additional parenting time each year, two of which may be consecutive. A week is a period not exceeding seven consecutive days. If a parent does not use the full seven days of extended time, those unused days are forfeited.

Extended parenting time may not be tacked on to the parent's regular parenting schedule. If a parent is exercising seven or more consecutive days of parenting time, the other parent must have at least one overnight parenting time immediately prior to and one overnight parenting time immediately after the consecutive days of parenting time. If a parent is exercising extended parenting time but the total time is less than seven consecutive days, there is no requirement that the other parent have overnight parenting time immediately prior to or immediately after the extended parenting time.

Each parent will provide the other parent with his or her vacation destination, method of travel, times of arrival and departure, and the telephone number where the child can be reached if extended time is going to occur out of town. The vacationing parent must provide this information to the non-vacationing parent at least 14 calendar days prior to the start of the vacation. A parent is not required to travel out of town or use vacation time from work in order to exercise extended parenting time.

Each parent must notify the other parent in writing of the times desired for these extended periods, at least 30 days prior to the requested extended parenting time. Where there is a conflict between the parents, the parent who first gave written notice to the other parent prevails.

4. ORDER OF PREFERENCE

In the event of a conflict, the order of preference for parenting time is: (1) holidays; (2) extended periods; (3) weekly schedule.

5. MISCELLANEOUS

A. Parent 1 must provide transportation at the beginning of his/her parenting time and Parent 2 must provide transportation at the end of Parent 1's parenting time. If the parent providing transportation is unavailable, another person may provide transportation if he/she is over the age of 18, has a valid driver's license, has car insurance and is one of the following: a person related to the child or who is part of the extended family of either parent; a friend of the parent known to both the parents and the child; and any other person agreed upon in advance by the parents. Any person transporting a child must use the proper child restraint seat and/or seat belts as required by law. No person may be under the influence of alcohol or use illegal drugs or other substances while transporting the child.

B. Each parent may have reasonable telephone and email contact with the child.

C. Parents are expected to be prompt for all parenting time exchanges. If a parent is going to be late, he/she must contact the other parent and give a reasonable estimated arrival time. Chronic lateness may be a reason to modify the schedule. The child should be ready to leave with the parent at the scheduled time.

D. Each parent must give notice of his/her intent not to have parenting time, at least 24 hours in advance unless a last minute emergency occurs. A parent who does not exercise his/her specific parenting time forfeits that specific time.

E. A parenting time exchange is not the time for parents to air their grievances with the other parent. It is important for the child that the exchanges take place without any conflict between his/her parents.

F. Either parent may request a modification of parenting time by filing a motion to modify. This Court will modify a parenting time schedule based upon the best interest of the child. Whether a parent is exercising his/her parenting time, whether there are conflicts during the parenting time exchanges, and whether a parent is prompt in the pickup and return of the child are examples of factors that this Court will consider in determining what is in the child's best interest.

6. STATUTORY NOTICES

RELOCATION NOTICE: Pursuant to R.C. 3109.051(G), the parents are notified as follows: If either parent intends to move to a residence other than the last residence of court record, he/she must file a notice of intent to relocate with the Clerk of Courts. Except as provided in R.C. 3109.051(G)(2), (3) and (4), the Clerk of Courts will mail a copy of the notice to the other parent. On receipt of the notice, this Court, on its own motion or on the motion of the other parent, may schedule a hearing with notice to both parents to determine whether it is in the best interest of the child to revise the parenting schedule.

Pursuant to DR 23 neither parent/legal custodian may relocate the child outside of a 75 mile radius of the residence address of the residential parent (sole custody) or the other residential parent (shared parenting) at the time of the last parenting time order without first obtaining a modified parenting time order. The parents may file a motion and submit an agreed entry modifying parenting time, with a provision for allocation of transportation expenses, which complies with DR 36, to the Court for adoption by the Court as an order.

If the parents are unable to agree, the parent filing the Notice to Relocate must, prior to relocation, 1) file a motion asking the Court to modify the parenting time schedule, 2) set a hearing, and 3) obtain a modified parenting time order. The motion must include the notice of relocation new residence address unless not required under R.C.3109.051(G)(2). Because relocating a child can be harmful to the parent/child relationship, the Court will not continue hearings to address a modification of the parenting schedule due to an imminent relocation except in extreme circumstances.

RECORDS ACCESS NOTICE: Pursuant to R.C. 3109.051(H) and 3319.321(B)(5)(a), the parents are notified as follows: Except as specifically modified or otherwise limited by court order or by law, both parents are entitled to equal access to any record related to the child, including school and medical records. Any keeper of a record, public or private who knowingly fails to comply with this order is in contempt of court.

DAY CARE CENTER ACCESS NOTICE: Pursuant to R.C. 3109.051(I), the parents are notified as follows: Except as specifically modified or otherwise limited by court order or by law, both parents are entitled to equal access to any day care center that is or will be attended by the child.

SCHOOL ACTIVITIES NOTICE: Pursuant to R.C. 3109.051(J), the parents are notified as follows: Except as specifically modified or otherwise limited by court order or by law, both parents are entitled to equal access to any student activity related to the child. Any school official or employee who knowingly fails to comply with this order is in contempt of court.
